I know a lot of people say that, but we actually mean it! We start by building relationships, not only with customers but in the communities we serve. Service isn't something we take lightly. In fact, we serve as volunteers, role models, leaders and friends to nonprofits and local schools. We work with local law enforcement, firefighters and local lawmakers to make our communities safer and to provide resources to meet needs across Northwest Arkansas. We raise money for students, Alzheimer's caregivers, research and awareness. We do these things because of the incredible opportunity and obligation we have to give back just a small portion of what this area has given to us over the years. I grew up in Joplin, Missouri a few miles north of here before moving to NWA to attend the University of Arkansas. I witnessed firsthand, through the unspeakable tragedy of the EF5 tornado in May of 2011, how an insurance agent could provide comfort and compassion to individuals in the very worst moments of their lives. I knew from that moment on that I wanted to use it as a platform to share insurance services to provide love, care and peace of mind to anyone that you want and anyone that needs it. As you call Farmers@
